

GSG 42- A02
An Act Allowing for Rolling Elections in the 22-23 Academic Year

Summary: The Act allows the Elections Committee to fill individual program seats as graduate students express interest in joining the Graduate Student Government. Currently, the bylaws are unclear about when a rolling election can occur. This clarifies that issue for the current academic year.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF filling the roughly 200 empty program representative seats within the Graduate Student Government General Assembly,

FOR THE PURPOSE OF not overloading the assembly with constant approvals for General Elections Per Bylaws 6.19,

BY allowing the Election Committee to hold a rolling election when an eligible graduate student expresses interest in filling a vacancy for the General Assembly during this academic year per Bylaws 6.18 .
